President's Message

Quilting! Such a versatile and rewarding hobby. Useful, decorative and warm. Satisfying to make and to share. I love to share this life-long passion. All ages can enjoy making quilts. Being a quilt guild member means we can share in the teaching and learning. Attending our "in-house" retreats is a most pleasurable experience. We are so fortunate to have a guild executive working to offer these amazing events. The sharing and camaraderie experienced in our guild events and retreats are second to none. We really should have a videographer to record the flutter of activity! All guilds struggle with the question of timing for quilting events. I feel our in-house retreats cover this off. All ages can attend whether members are retired or working outside of the home. Be sure to try a retreat. You'll love it.

In keeping with the guild and retreat theme this issue I welcome new blood for our guild executive. Come speak to the current executive for more information or nominate someone. We have a good thing going, let's keep on.

Something else on my mind lately, actually since I was "retired" from my bank job, is ageism and then health as well. I see through my mother how important a hobby in our later years can be so fulfilling. My mother spends a lot of time alone and she immerses herself into her sewing room. She takes so much pleasure in her massive collection of magazines, books and fabric stash. She regularly tries new patterns, is quite adept at choosing colours and always has sample blocks on her display wall. Often times she has several patterns she's testing for colour and design. She will be 83 this summer. I can only hope I can do the same at that age.

Kids can quilt and quite enjoy the creative process. Quilt shops offer kids classes and it's so nice to see a growing interest at their young age. The classes set the stage for future enjoyment. Since sewing machines are rarely in schools anymore the classes are desperately needed.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at our next meeting. If we haven't met, please come and introduce yourself.

Take care,
Mary-Ann Vanner

Members' Requests, Promos, Announcements ...

- ♦ Guild Storage Room - Next Tuesday, take a peak in the storage room as you pass. No we weren't robbed, however the room has undergone a major clear-out. The room is for Guild storage, not personal items. Before dropping anything off 'for the Guild' to use, speak to a member of the Executive. Not all donated items are of a quilting quality.
- ♦ 'Light box' available for sign-out. The Guild owns a light box; no more standing at the window tracing an outline for your appliqué project. The light box is available for sign out.
- ♦ Jenn Grahl is looking for your flannel scraps. Jenn makes menstrual kits for a charity group "Days For Girls". The kits are donated to 3rd world countries. The fabric colour doesn't matter, Jenn has dye packs at the ready. 1 note - hold back on the animal prints. Your donations can be dropped off at Silver Threads, please label your bag "for Jenn Grahl"
- ♦ Executive vacancies in September : ..... Too much spare time, the following Executive Committee positions are open in September, elections take place at the April Guild meeting ..
  - ★ President
  - ★ Vice President
  - ★ Programming - a lot for 1 person to do - consider teaming up with a fellow Guild member - take on one of the responsibilities ..
    - ★ Guild Meeting 'entertainment'
    - ✂ Sew Days and Retreats
    - ★ Charity - sewing projects
  - ★ Newsletter - relatively easy, no specific software required. I've been using a free 'text' editor.
- Library update - the panel book has been returned, back on the trolley for others to enjoy.

Sewing Days return with new rules ...

Our Saturday sew days have been poorly attended and with the increase in rent charged by Silver Threads, the days were NO longer viable. So, we've partnered up with the Silver Threads Friday sew group. Here's hoping with an increase in invitees we can maintain our Saturday Sew Days. 10 gals must register, the cost has increased to $5.

Preregistration and payment is required. If we don't make the minimum of 10 gals, the day will be cancelled.

Saturday, April, 20th - register and pay on/before Tuesday, April 16th
Saturday, May 25th - register and pay on/before Tuesday, May 21st

The easiest, attend the Tuesday Guild meeting, register and pay Mary Jackson.
